Video AdMaster desires to have _____ (Provider) perform creative tasks surrounding the creation and delivery of digital assets for use in online video advertisements. Both parties wish to enter an agreement to work together. The following details are agreed upon in regard to scope of work, contractor status, billing and payments.

YOU WANT TO SUPPLY: ___images (400x300 – 72dpi) ___video (5-sec. QuickTime 320x240 clip) ___music (30-sec. mpeg) ___animation (5-sec. FLV File) ___Ad Templates (30-sec. ad in QuickTime format – 4:3 ratio)

Rate of pay per piece expected by you: _____ Rate approved to pay by Video AdMaster, per piece: _____

1. You will provide high quality digital assets to be used in the creation of online video ads.
2. All digital assets shall remain the property of Provider (you), however, the right to use these created digital assets, will be held by Video AdMaster for a period of two years, to be extended upon mutual agreement. You shall retain the right to distribute any assets you create for Video AdMaster to other parties.
3. Provider shall be paid, net 30 days of use in a video ad.
4. Video AdMaster shall create a repository of content from various Content Providers and select/use content based upon ad orders submitted by advertisers.
5. There is no guarantee that any content you submit will be used, but if so, you shall be compensated.
6. Video AdMaster guarantees and warrants it shall not use any of your content without compensation to you, the artist.
7. It is recommended that you submit all of your work/digital assets for use because a wider range of submissions will increase the probability that your submissions will be incorporated into a produced video ad.
8. The above agreement points represent the whole agreement.
